MARTHA'S PROFILE

Driven by a passion for leadership and equity, Martha Pierre-Louis is making her mark in Chicago as a junior Accounting major at Loyola University Chicago. As the President and Founder of Loyola's National Association of Black Accountants (NABA) chapter, she is dedicated to creating inclusive environments that support students pursuing careers in business. Her dedication to financial literacy and community-building reflects a leadership style rooted in access, advocacy, and impact.

Martha embodies the CGM Movement's spirit of courageous growth, showing how student leadership rooted in resilience, resourcefulness, and purpose multiplies impact across families and communities.

*Together, we're building a brighter future
—one student, one mindset, and one family at a time.*
